Prayer Thought:
Although I’m not rich in the eyes of the world, not holding a claim to much land, yet I am a child of the heavenly King, who holds all the worlds in His hands. Though having no fame, or even a place to call home, yet I have a Friend who has promised to guard me with angels wherever I roam.

He gives me the hope and the courage I need to face all the things I must bear. He promises if I am faithful and true, in time we will meet over there. He’s given me hope for a future that’s grand and a treasure that never will end. I’m thankful for Him who has given me life; I’m thankful for Jesus my Friend. Sandra A. Haynes

Thank you for your Prayers for our son, Jason, while he was undergoing treatment for pancreatic cancer this year. God sustained him during his 13-hour surgery plus He protected all of us when Hurricane Harvey blew in while Jason was still in the Houston hospital. Jason was able to continue working throughout his treatment, except for a few weeks after surgery. His last scan shows that he is cancer-free and we praise God for the miraculous healing! God is good, and we praise Him! Please keep Jason in your prayers as he continues his walk with the Lord. Andy & Linda Mayer.
