Adventist Heritage Ministry Presentation With Donald Sahly – March 17 – Worship Hour
On March 17 Roseburg Women’s Ministry will be sponsoring a presentation by Adventist Heritage Ministry. The speaker will be Donald Sahly (retired Adventist Educator – past president of Southern Adventist University and several other Adventist Universities) who now works part time for AWM. AWM is part of the EIG White Estate from the General Conference. Throughout history, remembering God’s leading in the past has always been crucial. When God’s people forget they tend to wander away from Him. The story of God’s leading in the history of the Adventist Church is too important to be lost. It is the purpose of AWM to preserve the history and the stories of the past. In doing so, we all assist in the importance of our future.
