David makes these two promises to you:

1. The Bible alone will be our textbook and our rule of authority.
2. You will learn more about Bible prophecy in a few nights than most learn in a lifetime.

David Machado

Born and raised in California, David grew up in a Christian home. However, he got disillusioned with church and religion and started down a path of partying and troublemaking. Around his freshman year of college, a friend invited him to hear a former rap artist speak. David attended, hoping to hear maybe some religious rap. The presenter was speaking about the gospel story and how Jesus changed his life. That message marked the turning point for David. He gave his life to Christ and started on a new journey. After attending Bible College and graduating with a degree in Theology, David committed himself to full-time evangelism. He has traveled throughout the United States and Hawaii, as well as other countries such as India, Philippines, Mexico, Peru, Dominican Republic, Germany and Romania, preaching Bible prophecy seminars and sharing the love and joy he has found in God's Word and through the Gospel. He is accompanied in ministry by his beautiful wife Abigail.

The Revelation of Love seminar is open to all classes of people – it is designed to meet their needs and time restraints. The relaxed setting is welcoming to both Christians and non-Christians alike. You are invited to come and experience for yourself what answers the Bible has for you and the challenges you may be facing today.
